

Service summary

Disability North

We provide a range of information, advice and support services relating to all aspects of disability. Our quality advice and support is free, confidential and impartial. We also work to support healthcare professionals and carers.

Our friendly service team of specialists are committed to supporting disabled people to live independently.

Whether the benefit is ESA (Employment Support Allowance), PIP (Personal Independence Payment) or Universal Credit, our specialist welfare benefits team provide impartial and confidential advice and support.

We can provide one-to-one support through every step of the process, from advising you on what is available, helping you to complete forms (including those online), to representing you at tribunal. Our service covers the North East
