The Studio

The Studio is the cultural hub for Hartlepool, bringing together music, the arts and communities.

We provide easy access to recording, rehearsal space and we are a dedicated live performance venue, giving the whole of the community the opportunity to participate in the arts.

The Studio is a not for profit Charity and Public Limited Company and has been ran solely by volunteers since October 2014.

It is Situated on North East coast of England, many great artists have passed through our doors, and we for hope many more in the future.
