

Service summary

Changing Futures North East Reducing Parental Conflict

Changing Futures North East (CFNE) believes the relationships in our lives matter!

As part of the relationships matter - Reducing Parental Conflict Programme - we now have a greater range of programmes and support to offer couples and separated parents in conflict.

We can now offer 1 or 4 possible activities, that are best suited to the needs of the family, that will be most helpful in their situation.

The 4 activities include group and one to one work with couples and separated parents and will be available for the next two years.
