

Service summary

Richard Court

Richard Court is an Extra Care scheme for customers over the aged 55+ with an identified care/support need. The scheme itself is on Lister Street which is in the centre of town, with excellent access to all facilities. This is supported accommodation providing housing for residents with more complex needs, so they may live independently with the correct support to aid independent living.

There are 49 units within the complex, of which 22 are one and two bed roomed apartments, 25 bungalows and 2 three bed houses. One of which is full wheelchair adapted.

There is a scheme manager on site who can offer advice and support. In addition there is care provided onsite 24 hours a day, 365 days a week. We try to create a social able and friendly community.
